Platinum Sponsorship

As Canada's international bank, Scotiabank has a unique opportunity to make a positive economic, social and environmental impact in the countries in which it operates.

Scotiabank's corporate social responsibility philosophy is to integrate sound environmental, social and governance practices into our day-to-day business activities. We measure our success not only in terms of financial criteria, but also in building customer satisfaction and employee engagement, and supporting the communities we serve.

Our community giving is an important component of our CSR efforts. In 2014, the Bank contributed CAD$65 million in donations and sponsorships to community causes around the world. We are also proud that our employees dedicated more than 650,000 hours of volunteering and fundraising time to local causes.
